

PowerSlate

PowerSlate is an exciting PV roofing product that allows for easy installation on a standard domestic roof. Each slate comprises a sealed PV unit that is connected to adjoining slates via the integral interconnects. The slates are fixed to standard timber battens using standard roofing nails and the connectors simply snap together to make the circuit.

Please contact us for further details.

PowerSlate